FRANK MASSA, JR.

The Lee Shore

David Crosby

Where gull spin and glide — you've no place to hide cause you don't need one
All along the lee shore shells lie scattered in the sand
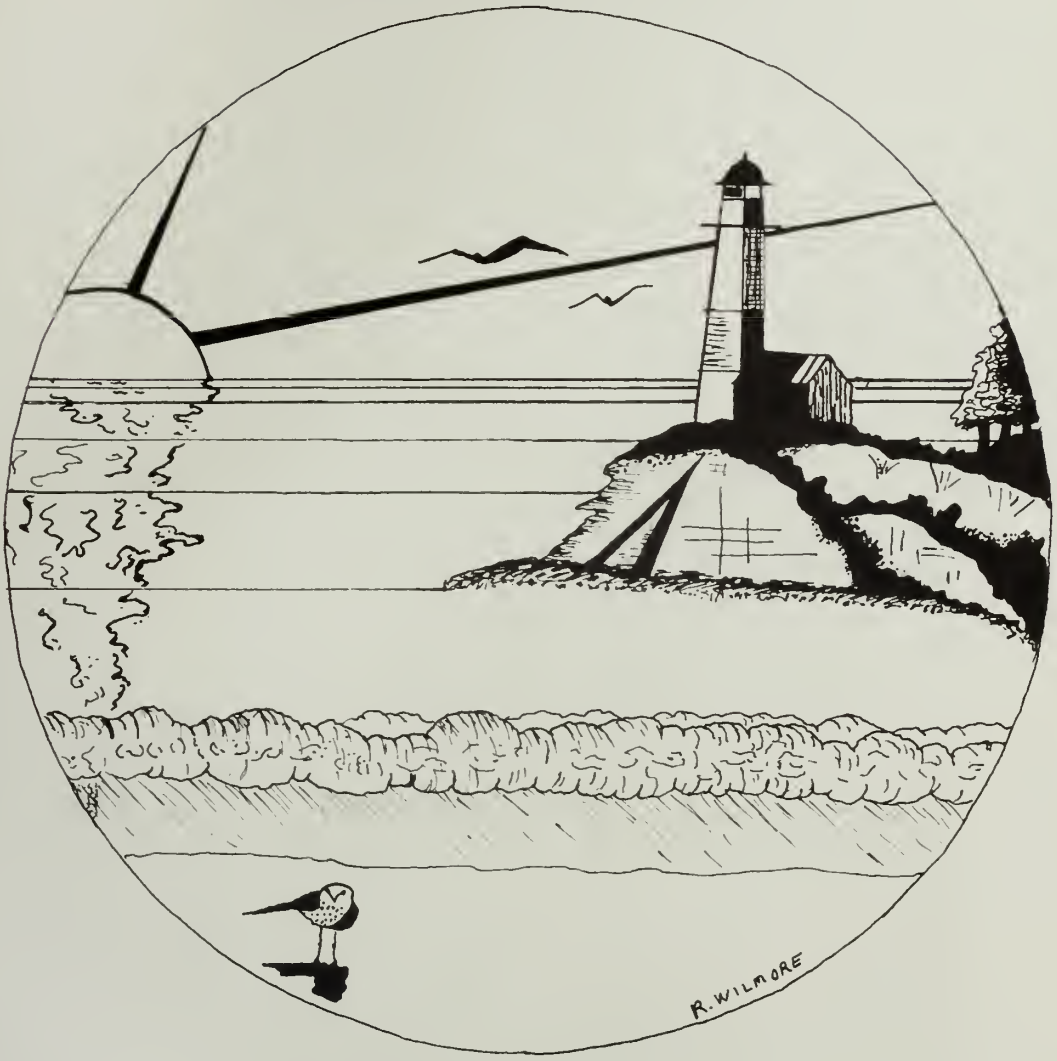
Winking up like shining eyes — at me, from the sea
Here is one like ~~surprise~~, older than you know
It's still lying there where some careless wave
Forgot it long ago
When I awoke this morning
Dove beneath my floating home
Down below her graceful side
In the turning tide
To watch the sea fish roam
There I heard a story from the sailors
Of the Sandra Marie
There's another island a day's run away from here
Empty and free
From here to Venezuela nothing more to see
Than a hundred thousand islands
Flung like jewels upon the sea
For you and me...
But perhaps I'll see you at the next quiet place —
I furl my sails.

LEE SHORE



THE 1973 TESSAHOC

COHASSET HIGH SCHOOL

COHASSET, MASSACHUSETTS

"To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare
not go.

This is my quest, to follow that
star,
No matter how hopeless, no matter
how far;
To fight for the right without
question or pause,
To be willing to march into hell
for a heavenly cause!
And I know, if I'll only be true
to this glorious quest,
That my heart will lie peaceful and calm, when I'm laid to my rest.

And the world will be better for this;
That one man scorned and covered
with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce
of courage
To reach the unreachable stars.

— Darion and Leigh

We, the Class of 1973, dedicate our Yearbook to you, Mr. Collins, who made our dreams seem a little less impossible.

. . . thoughts of Cohasset . . .

When I arrived at Cohasset High School in the middle of the first term, I found it difficult to adjust to my senior classmates, and the rest of the student body.

But, the senior class then gave me the most wonderful Christmas present I ever received — a phone call to my home! This made me feel a part of C.H.S. By attending school activities, and local parties, I am now able to understand and enjoy my classmates in America more.

I will always remember this year at C.H.S. as something special in my life. I am so glad that I had a chance to meet people my age who enjoy a totally different life style . . . Yvonne

My mother, Margaretha, near our home in Johanneshov, Stockholm

My father, Bert, and my brothers Stefan and Mikael

My family in Cohasset — Henry and Jan Richenburg and Vaqar, an SIS representative from Pakistan.

COACHES

Miss Babaian's 8th year of Varsity coaching proved to be her finest. After 4 years of second place finishes, she and her team captured their first South Shore League title. Miss Babaian felt it was the "110% effort and teamwork" that distinguished this club from those of the past. Even though the coach is losing six starters, this is what she has to look forward to . . .

. . . Mrs. Kealey coached the J.V. to its second straight undefeated and unscored upon season. As she enters her ninth year of coaching, let's hope she can keep her streak alive!

SEASON WRAP-UP

This year's basketball team was the finest in Cohasset's history. Through the first eighteen games, the team won 12 games; qualified for the State Tournament; and established itself as one of the favorites to win the Divisional Championship. Some of the high points of the season were: the scoring of 18 straight points to upset Middleboro on their home floor; Jon Sargent scoring 1000 career points; and Cohasset's unbelievable, heart-stopping, come from behind victory over Hanover to qualify for the "tech."

Some unpleasant memories were: 2 frustrating defeats to Norwell, including a 25 foot shot at the buzzer to defeat Cohasset. Also, David Infusino's injury in the Hull game, which undoubtedly cost Cohasset 2 or 3 more wins, and Jeff Pratt's "chicken pox."

David Infusino and Jon Sargent received the Most Valuable Player award; Vaughn Deal and the Unsung Hero; and Rick Sawyer and Jeff Pratt the "Most Team Spirit" award. Bob O'Rourke received the "Most Improved Player" award.

This team has given the students and faculty many exciting moments and a contagious feeling of pride to be part of Cohasset High School.

Wrap Up

This year's Cohasset Hockey team had problems because there were very few returning experienced players. The squad was composed mainly of freshmen and sophomores with only four juniors and three seniors. The entire second line was made up of sophomores including Matt Delaney, Tommy Cowan, and either Bunky Flynn, Peter Graham or Greg Hoffman. Other underclassmen playing on defense are: Jack Cont, Pat Ferran, Kevin McCullough and Gus Keating. Paul Carmody improved tremendously after starting out the season with very little experience — he was backed up in the goal by Murdoch Johnson, a freshman. Paul Donovan, the mainstay of the defense, and Billy Livingstone, a junior provided some experience for the defense. Willy White and Dave Londergan, two seniors, along with Bob Paris, a new junior make up the first line; which incidentally did the majority of the scoring for the team. The squad ended up with an 7-6 record, and is looking forward to its tournament in Burlington, Vermont.

Dunny starts out.

WRAP-UP

The 1972 baseball season brought the Cohasset Varsity nine its first championship since 1966. Nine members of the Class of 1973 were on that championship team. At some time during that season each of the juniors started at least one game; five of those ball players found themselves in the starting lineup during most of the season.

With the coming of the 1973 season these nine young men should lead the Cohasset Skippers to another fine season. On the mound three senior hurlers should acquit themselves well; Jon Sargent, Jeff Pratt, and Bryan Miller all have enough experience under their belts to give the mound corps plenty of help. Behind the plate Jeff Badger and Dave Londergan will comprise a senior backstop duo, while an all senior infield could be put together with Rick Sawyer, Steve Tibbetts, Dave Infusino, and Jon Sargent. In the outfield Bill Signorelli and Jeff Pratt could lead a senior contingent. With some good material from this year's junior class the senior baseball players of the class of 1973 should lead the Cohasset baseball squad to a fine winning season.

SKIPPERS IN THE STATES!

Infa skies for the boards.

Sarge receives the game ball and congratulations after becoming the first player in Cohasset's history to score 1000 points.

On Tuesday, February 27, 1973, the Cohasset Skippers played Bishop Feehan in its first State Basketball Tournament game ever. Although Feehan won 49-46, the Skippers by no means disgraced themselves. Tough defense and balanced scoring enabled Cohasset to take a six-point lead at halftime. The final outcome was in doubt until Feehan converted two freethrows with three seconds left in the game.

It was a hard way to end the season, but the team was proud to have accomplished something which no other Cohasset team has ever done!

BEACH BUMS RETURN TO THE LEESHORE

What could be a better place for our 15th class reunion than good 'ole Sandy Beach? Although years have passed, not much has changed; even the burns remain. We planned an early start this morning, but it seems some took this a bit too literally. Rolf Gjesteby, Jeff Donze, David Karoff, Kathy Fox, and Linda Thayer, notorious "Polar Bears," were found nearly frozen by the Welcoming Committee from their morning dip. John Francis, Steve Tibbetts, Steve Blair, Carl Berens, and Phil Thayer were also here at the crack of dawn . . .

News flash!!! Bonnie Kehoe and Sheila Madigan were recently demoted from TV newscasters to writers for the South Shore News and will be taking notes today. They were fired from their prestigious positions for saying "Hi" to Mr. Reade during the 11 o'clock news.

Bill "the brains" Signorelli, Tom "the Mangler" Calorio, and Ed "pretty boy" Sorrentino, headquartered in Belfast, Maine, have just arrived in black Cadillacs to make Cohasset "an offer they can't refuse." These distinguished-looking gentle(?)men are wearing suits designed and tailored by Roberta McKinnell.

CRASH!!! Jill Duncan has had another accident. The nurse squad, Paula D'Onofrio, Eileen Sullivan, Anne Enos, Debbie Nast, Mimo Haskell, and Linda Kraft rush to the scene with none other than our "ladies man" Dr. Kurt Rever, not far behind. Luckily for Jill, Dan Basmajian, Armenian witch doctor, isn't around. How can Diane Howorth and David Londergan get sunburns at a time like this? . . . The whole medical staff is busy arguing over Jill. For a minute I thought Brian Prendegast had one too, but I guess he's just blushing. Carol Paine is arriving just in time from the Cohasset Colonial Pharmacy equipped with the real painkiller, Solarpaine. Liz Viola, Debbie Jones, Linda Conte, and Susan Sadler have arrived too late from the Cushing Plaza Pharmacy.

While on the subject of health, it seems Greta Towle's horses have contracted a strange disease, and she's seeking advice from veterinarians Sandy Carter and Pam Hood. Sadly enough Tom Glynn's turkeys have the same sickness. Fortunately, Judy Topper has offered to take blood samples to her medical lab, and if need be Leslie Ahearn is on hand to give physical therapy to man or beast.

Karen Farrell, Giustina Saldi, and Pat Patterson, top New York models, and renowned hairdresser, Annette Hayden, have just arrived, and all the males are staring trancelike in their direction. I don't think anything is really wrong, but Swedish eye specialist, Yvonne Branden, is preparing herself just in case.

It's a good thing we have so many medical pros around today because Karen Tewks and Dave Infusino, Phys. Ed. teachers at CHS, have decided it's about time for exercises. One . . . Two . . . Three . . . Four . . . UGH!!! How long can this go on?

A rousing baseball game has begun in the parking lot with Fred Higgens leading the Hillside gang and Dave Cogill heading up the Beechwoodites. With such greats as Scott Herzog and "little" Dan Ainslie, the contest seems to be a one-sided one. Watch out for the burns!!! Oh, well, call in Dr. Rever.

Amidst all the confusion Mark Hellar is adamantly trying to impress on the businessmen of our class how he still hasn't worked a day in his life. Mark is in the higher income bracket because he enjoys watching the natives dive for quarters. This doesn't compare with the National Sporting Goods Corporation which is making millions under the supervision of President Rick Sawyer, stationed in New Orleans, Vice President Jon Sargent in San Diego, and Steve Hubbell, Chairman of the Board in Salt Lake City. As director of maintenance Jeff Pratt is also a valuable asset. Jeff Badger, the millionaire corporate lawyer, enjoys flying from office to office to keep things in order. Rick and Jon have hired fellow classmates, Joan Lantz and Valerie Madge, as their personal secretaries. Polly Dusossoit, still an "Appasionatta" at heart, has become Steve's secretary after he spent years searching for the right girl. Bryan Miller, a southern business tycoon, is scheming to run the whole company out of business.

The business world is even booming right here in Cohasset. Sam Spinzola, Jayne Figueredo, Katie Fitzpatrick, and Nat Young, lifetime A&P meatpackers, just "steered" in along with head bundleboy, Paul McCarthy. Karla Rose, current manager of Woolworth's pet department, and Sue Cone, owner of the Red Lion Inn, are discussing money problems with successful businessman, Carold Brownell.

Kathy Oliver, proud owner of Cohasset News Company, has banned Mad magazine from her stands, and Paul Donovan is handling her law suit against Jody Thaxter, editor of Mad. Working with Jody are Mike Smith, Nappy Plank, Mary O'Hayre, Jim Benedict, and Kendall DeLong, but they aren't the only ones fearful of losing jobs. Becky Patrolia, Sharon MacDonald, Andy Cifrino, and Celine DeSantis, who have always displayed a certain uniqueness, have put it to use by creating self-characters in that controversial magazine. This scandalous lawsuit all stems back from pornographic artwork done by CHS's own Robin Wilmore, Dave Alexander, and Nancy Bowen.

At one end of the beach, the elite Cohasset Country Club members are gathered, deep in Discussion about what Jon Wilson and Bob Higgins wrote about John Pattyson's tennis and Tony Difrino's golf in Sports Illustrated last month. Mary Chittim is following them around as usual. Willy White, new owner of Stowe Away stores, is trying to sell his newest line in tennis rackets and golf balls. You know it's too bad the golfers lost Jon Roberts to the Mormons and he currently has 18 wives, working on the 19th.

Despite the confusion, everyone's appetites are hearty, and Kathy McCarthy has had Chinese food shipped from her own restaurant in Moscow. Sharon Winchester and Michelle Kjer are helping her with the serving. Dixie Duggan has kindly supplied Mammy's own Yokumberry Tonic, so no one is thirsty to say the least. Carol Hurtig's Maine lobsters are contentedly chasing Frank Sullivan while he not-so-contentedly is belting out a verse of "Help." The lobsters were to be eaten, but no one dares disturb their fun. Although Frank is undoubtedly the featured entertainer today, we also have guitar playing and singing by Joe Fisher, Bill Lord, and Sue Coleman's husband, Elvis.

Just think, Beth Muir has been married almost 15 years now! By the sound of things she is soon to become a mother for the 15th time, since she is discussing an addition to her house, with builder Steve Kelley.

What's this? A crowd has gathered at the water's edge. Why, it's Kathy Kelley sailing in on her boat, the "Moonbeam," and she's waving around the America cup for everyone to see. Ahoy, Kathy. I understand she and Nina Steele have just sailed around the world in 80 days and they have brought messages back from some class of '73 members who are unable to make it today. Wow, some of our classmates are in the strangest places. Peter Pratt and Steve Keefe are in Vietnam fighting for the Viet Cong and Eileen O'Connell has sent prayers for us all. She is still in the convent. Marcia Jordan and Susan Fernalld are still in Africa, although they will try to make at least some of the festivities. Here they come now, descending upon the beach in a balloon. What perfect timing! It seems a few trees are posing a problem, but our own Vaugn Deal, 7'2" center for the Boston Celtics, is helping them down with no trouble at all. Beverly McLaughlin and Karen Linsley can't make it as they will be staying abroad for a while longer. Greg Brown and Dan Jones, confirmed winter ski bums and summer bikies, have just pulled up on their Husky 400s, and I imagine shortly we'll hear some good raving from them.

Not to be outdone in the category of strange arrivals, Anne Mack, Jacky Kurtz, Barrie Faber, and Maureen O'Brien are coming in for a landing in their own plane, piloted by none other than Nick Ripley. Evidently named after Steve Moulton, it has "Superfly" written all over it, but by the looks of the landing the plane isn't all that super.

We have just realized that Terry Prescott and Amy MacLure haven't made the scene yet, and I guess the Datson died again. Randy Boscow has kindly offered to go see what the trouble is, with his faithful Toyota.

I heard through the grapevine that Linda Nickerson and Debbie Thompson are having trouble getting here from their Hull apartments and Steve Smith has brought along his pocket IBM computor to figure out how long it will take them to walk. He's also calculating how long it will take Heather Munroe, Jean Willworth, and Alison Woods to hitchhike from California.

I must say I'm catching bits of some strange conversations and I'm afraid to ask Joe Walsh what kind of an experiment he was talking about a while ago. Shh . . . I think I've begun listening in on a real good one now. Mary Cotter, dean of admissions at B.C. is engaged in a heated discussion with Harvard's Bruce Kiley, over which school has a better football team this year. I just asked Ronny Watkins what his opinion is but he doesn't seem to want to comment. Wait a minute, things are getting a little out of hand I'd say, as a few fist fights have broken out on the matter. It's a good thing we have Bill Kearney and Colin Francis on hand, as chief officers in the military, to keep things in order.

What has caused the sudden hush to come over the gathering? It isn't JoAnn Churchill trying to break up the event, is it? She's the first woman cop in Cohasset — just carrying on the family tradition. Well, I guess it's about time for us to go on home anyway, as the sun is beginning to set over good 'ole Sandy. It's been a lot of fun, though, seeing everyone again and doing things just like old times. Sure, it's been 15 years, but everything's still the same, really. After all, even the burrs remain, so things couldn't be too different, could they?

You'll find four superb Sheratons in the heart of Manhattan

SHERATON MAKES IT HAPPEN IN NEW YORK, MONTREAL, TORONTO, CHICAGO.

Almost anywhere business takes you, you can enjoy the pleasures of Sheraton. Downtown, out of town, here and abroad, Sheraton understands what a businessman wants from his hotel or motor inn—and gives it to him.

Sheraton is big in the big business cities of this world. And the small ones. Great for business meetings and conventions. We keep you on top of things, where the action is—without forgetting the small attentions that let you relax, enjoy a good dinner, and get a great night's sleep.

Whenever you travel—for business or pleasure—Sheraton makes a great trip happen. To reserve a room at any Sheraton in the world, call your nearest Sheraton reservation office or any Sheraton Hotel or Motor Inn. In the continental United States, you can call 800-325-3535. Or have your travel agent call it for you.
